OXFORD & CAMBRIDGE

Medical Management Course

Wednesday 27th and Thursday 28th March 2019

St Catherine's College, Oxford

Course Overview & Outline Agenda

This course offers a 2 day programme that covers many aspects of management required for a consultant. This course will prepare senior trainees and new consultants for the different components of consultant life.

Course Content

Business Planning
- How to get the equipment you want to treat your patients
- Case studies
- Working with Industry to optimise clinical outcomes.

Medicolegal Workshop:
- How improve your clinical practice to avoid litigation
- Dealing with complaints
- Medical case studies

NHS contracts:
- Excellence Awards, NHS Job planning, Consultant Appraisal.

Management and leadership workshop
- Clinical Case scenarios
- Optimising clinical outcomes for patients
- Getting the best out of your team
- Conflict resolution & Negotiating skills

High level healthcare management outside of the NHS
- Optimising patient outcomes and satisfaction in independent practice
- Setting up new services
- Ensuring the sustainability of your practice
- Panel discussion on independent practice

Venue

St Catharine's College, Oxford
http://www.stcatz.ox.ac.uk/

Timings

0930 Wed 27th March – 1600 Thurs 28th March 2019

Booking

Limited places available. The course is for senior Registrars (ST6-7) and new consultants. Due to generous sponsorship the cost to delegates is currently £295 (including course, overnight accommodation, breakfast, lunch and 3 course dinner in college).

Please book at: www.oxbridgecourses.com

Feedback from previous delegates
- "Very good course. Covered many areas which we have no experience of training to deal with."
- "Great course. Very interactive. Very useful."
- "Brilliant mix of topics."

Course Organisers

Mr Oliver Wiseman – Consultant Urological Surgeon, Cambridge
Mr Ben Turney - Consultant Urological Surgeon, Oxford

Faculty

Prof R Canter – Nuffield Department of Surgical Sciences, Oxford
Vanessa Sanders - Stanbridge Accountants